

APRIL 15-17, 2010

Northeastern Association of Graduate Schools (NAGS)
Annual Meeting, Hotel Nelligan, Montreal, Quebec

Innovation and Tradition: Quality Improvement in Graduate Education

Featuring:

- Interactive discussion/presentations on Quality Improvement in Graduate Education from administrative, faculty and student perspectives
- Council of Graduate Schools update on the Professional Science Masters Initiative

Registration:

The conference registration fee includes an opening reception and dinner at Musée Pointe-à-Callière (www.pacmusee.qc.ca) and a special awards luncheon at which all six faculty and student awards will be presented. A flyer describing the meeting agenda as well as a conference registration form is included with this letter.

Accommodation:

Hotel Nelligan is a “luxury hotel located in Old Montreal - Europe at your doorstep. A building that’s over a hundred years old, traditional brick walls, French cuisine... Hotel Nelligan exudes European elegance, but the charm it bestows on its guests is singular and all its own.”

To book the conference rate of $179 CDN/night (available until March 14, 2010) call Hotel Nelligan: 1-877-788-2040 (mention the “NAGS RATE”) or reserve online: www.hotelnelligan.com (enter the code: NAGS1404)

Further information:

Contact Scott Delcourt at scott.delcourt@umit.maine.edu

Note:

Passports are required for travel across the United States/Canadian border.

We look forward to seeing you at the conference in Montreal!

www.nags.org