President Schaefer called the meeting to order at 8:05 a.m.

The minutes of the October 28, 2006 were accepted unanimously.

Membership Report:

Scott Delcourt reported that 104 institutions had paid membership dues as of early December. A report of paid members and institutions that had not paid was distributed. Executive Committee members were encouraged to contact institutional representatives in their regions who had not yet renewed NAGS membership.

Awards Committees:

Dissertation Award (Physical Sciences, Mathematics and Engineering): Timothy Barbari, Georgetown University

Teaching Award: Mark Curchack, Arcadia University

Geoffrey Marshall Mentoring Award: Renetta Tull

Master's Thesis Award (Social Sciences and Education): Sandra Holley

Awards nomination materials will be updated to include the committee chairs, their phone numbers and email addresses and will be sent to institutional contacts in mid-December after the CGS meeting. The deadline for submission of materials for the all awards is February 12, 2007. A "Save the Date" notice regarding the 2007 meeting will be sent with the awards mailing.

2007 Annual Meeting:

President Schaefer asked Executive Committee members for updates regarding their sessions. A revised meeting agenda follows.

Executive Committee members were reminded to get their session titles and speakers to Scott as soon as possible so that the conference mailing could be sent to NAGS members.
